

Speaker text 'Sparkling Desire'

Please note: during the speaker text, the Rijnmondband will walk to the starting position of the show. Please stick to this text as much as possible so that the members have enough time for this. The text must not be shortened under any circumstances.

Dear museum visitors, welcome to the museum of the Rijnmondband from Schiedam, a place where history and ambition come together.

The museum houses precious relics from glorious shows of times gone by. Each item tells a story. A story of achievements, memories, and passion.

Today, we are adding a new showpiece to this special collection.

A priceless, sparkling, and meaningful diamond. But this diamond is more than that...

The diamond symbolizes the desire to create memories, to pursue dreams, and to strive together for something great. A sparkling desire, in other words.

But will the members of the Rijnmondband actually get their hands on this diamond?

What starts as a flawless plan quickly turns into a compelling adventure full of obstacles.

Only with perseverance, cooperation, and determination can the code be cracked. Will they succeed?

Get ready for a heist full of musical and visual surprises in this museum.

Under the direction of drum major Damien Kweekel, the Rijnmondband presents:

Sparkling Desire!
